ADGA Academic Scholarship Application Directions

On 8½ x 11 paper, type or print the following information. Put your name and identifying numbers, etc. only on the application form. Do not bind or place form in a folder. Do not use name of herds, animals, people, or places in your answer or story. Confine narrative answers to the essay. Do not send any material other than that which is specifically requested. Use only the format below.

1. Tell us of your past and present involvement with dairy goats. Limit your response to three pages.
2. Describe how this has shaped your learning and experiences. Limit your response to one page.
3. Tell us about how you plan to stay involved or promote involvement/awareness with dairy goats in your future and how do you see your educational plans helping you to achieve this? Limit your response to one page.
4. List your dairy goat related awards, demonstrations, public service, and group related activities (4-H, FFA, other). Limit your list to the top 20 most significant or meaningful to you. If you list 4-H, please include the number of years you participated. (Preference will be given to applicants who have been ADGA members for three or more years and are pursuing a degree in education for the Linda Campbell Educational Scholarship. Preference will be given to individuals who have participated in 4-H for at least 3 years for the Evelyn J Cassette Memorial Scholarship.)
5. List Leadership experiences designed to aid others involved with dairy goats. Limit your list to the top 10 which are most significant or meaningful to you.
6. List your activities and community service experiences and the awards you have received NOT related to dairy goats. Limit your list to the top 20 most significant or meaningful to you.
7. Please attach a copy of your letter of acceptance, copy of high school or college transcripts, and college year.
8. Remember – no names of herds, animals, people or places are to be used anywhere in your answers or story.
